Dear [Redacted]

50X1

Thanks for loaning me the two studies on [Redacted]
[Redacted] which are of interest to some of our offices.
We have made microfilm copies of these studies which are being returned herewith.

The urgent summons to Washington which you are awaiting so eagerly may materialize reasonably soon. As [Redacted] may have told you after his return [Redacted] this week, a decision has been made to proceed with the [Redacted] and I am currently engaged in preparing a memorandum to our Projects Review Committee for the necessary appropriations.
I will certainly keep you fully posted on further developments.

Lyman Kirkpatrick is showing a steady improvement and is now able to leave his bed for a wheel chair more or less regularly. I think that you will be able to see him next time you are in town without much difficulty.

I shall look forward to seeing you in Washington one of these days.

Sincerely,

Michael G. Corson
